PREDICTIONS FOR THE NINTH GRADE

Reading the stars is a very popular pasttime these days and as we look into the firmament around GSS, we see the following things in the future for the ninth grade graduates:

Stewart Burch will be a second-hand whiskey maker in his cabin in the hills.

Cathy Carney is now Mother Superior of the Order of Flying Nuns.

Lisa Cecconi has become the first woman president of the World Football League and its future is still in doubt.

Megan Cummins is the top golf caddy in the world as well as the champion bubble gum blower in all of Russia.

Mary Ann Doll will be a cheerleading sponsor for the Good Shepherd teams until she reaches the age of 99 1/2 when she will retire.

Kelly Green has married Howard Cosell and now runs the business.

Tom Fisher is a top aide to ex-President Nixon as well as an All-American bartender at Midland Tavern.

Laurie Hines is a scuba-diver along the Devil's Triangle, but her main hobby is collecting dirty rocks.

Leigh Ann Howard is the chief money raiser for all of the Good Shepherd Parish. We hear they are still in debt.

David Kain has given up cars for bicycles, but he has a hobby of collecting hot-wheels and matchboxes.

Mike Kelly is busy planning the next Indian raid on Wounded Knee.

Paula Mahoney is zoo keeper for Good Shepherd School. We hear she has some interesting specimens.

Davey Mitchell is host and outstanding dancer for the Soul Train show.

Jeffrey Phillips is Welcome Wagon Hostess for Waddy, KY.

Frank Rudloff is owner and hear waiter at Frankie's Frankfurter Restaurant at Frankfort, KY.

Betty Schuster has replaced Loretta Swift on M*A*S*H* as Hot Lips Hoolahan.

David Waldner will soon be the chief popcorn popper in Frankfort just as soon as he learns how to shake the stove.

Donna Updike has become an outstanding beaver orthodontist.

Sara Wood continues her love for horses. She is now the "headless horseperson".

Dorothy Wood has become a miser and lives permanently at Moldy Manor.

Martin Booe is the new El Kabong and stars in his own series.

Ann Cotton is a model saleslady for Avon. She rings a mean doorbell.

Lloyd Lynch is chief bell-ringer at St. Peter's Basilica.

Kevin Sullivan is now employed as janitor at the State National Bank. His father wouldn't give him a job.
